TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

During 2020, which was a difficult and trying year, we were in the market for some items to enable us to get the maximum done at the best quality and the most affordable price and I stumbled on to ASCOT SITE SOLUTIONS.

What a blessing, from the 1st interaction with the team, they had been very professional, prompt in getting back to us and generally offered great service. From the sales department to the rental department and even the technicians have all been friendly and welcoming.

This has been such a special relationship that started, and I will gladly recommend ASCOT SITE SOLUTIONS and their staff to any other business out there. These people walk the extra mile and are just the best company to have as a partner in this industry.

Thank you to the owner's, management, and staff of ASCOT for being a big asset to our company.

Yours sincerely,

ELMA OLIVIER
